Professional Profile

Timothy Noonan is a 35-year veteran in the commercial insurance industry who has served in executive leadership positions for some of the world's largest insurance brokerages including Jardine Insurance Brokers (now Jardine Lloyd Thompson), a division of Jardine Matheson, a multi-billion dollar international corporation.

Currently, he is president and chief executive officer of Lockton Insurance Brokers, LLC, the Pacific Series of Lockton Companies, where he is responsible for more than $185 million in annual revenues and 600 associates. Lockton Companies is the largest independent, privately owned, global insurance broker that employs more than 6,500 professionals and serves 50,000 clients around the world with risk management, insurance, employee benefits consulting, and retirement services.

Known to peers and clients as one of the top producing commercial insurance professionals in the nation and a strategic business leader, Mr. Noonan is committed to innovation and lasting business relationships.

Over the decades, Mr. Noonan and his associates have developed avant-garde insurance and risk management programs for middle market to Fortune 500 companies across diversified industries, including some of the nation's foremost private equity and alternative asset management firms.

Mr. Noonan was recently named among the most powerful business people and opinion shapers in Los Angeles. He was profiled in Los Angeles Business Journal's "The Los Angeles 500" for his significant achievements and standing in the community.

He serves on the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and is a board member of Town Hall Los Angeles, one of the top 10 leadership forums in the nation.

Mr. Noonan has also advised various public commissions and committees, including the Workers' Compensation Task Force, which resulted in major legislative changes in the workers' compensation industry, and the Rampart Independent Review Panel, investigating the practices of the Los Angeles Police Department. He was appointed by Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger to serve as chairman of the California State Athletic Commission to ensure the health, safety and welfare of participants in regulated combative sports events.

A long-time advocate of public service and community involvement, Mr. Noonan has shepherded the company's corporate charter of philanthropy that engages employees in their communities and supports more than 100 organizations and charitable causes throughout California.
