Nuestro personal de FFRC también quisiera compartir algunos consejos que les han ayudado como padres de un niño o de niños con una discapacidad.

FFRC STAFF'S TOP SUMMER TIPS

- Make sure to reach out to your CSC in the Spring to let them know your child will need an aide to accompany them to summer camp. They can provide an aide to attend camp with your child (or you can choose a family friend) so the aide can facilitate social interactions while at camp.
- I recommend Sunny Days camp at CSUN! <https://www.csun.edu/usu/program-information>
- Email the camp supervisor and introduce your child and let them know that your child has a disability. If it is your child's first time in a camp, let them know that too, because that information may be helpful for them.
- Set aside all the long list of worries for the meantime while your child is in the camp. There are still a lot of good people in this world, don't worry they will make new friends!
- Check out the low-cost swim classes at CSUN. The class size caps at 5. The instructors are wonderful and very accommodating.
- I recommend contacting the City of Santa Clarita Inclusion Support who can help make sure our kids can enjoy different recreation opportunities offered by the City. Contact them at inclusionsupport@santa-clarita.gov.
- Bowling is a nice indoor activity to try with your child, especially on a hot summer day.
- Consider checking out the Special Olympics program if you are looking for a fun & free recreational activity for your child.
- Go camping and get the whole family unplugged. State park campsites can be searched for and booked through www.reservecalifornia.com.
- CSUN summer movie fest. It is a FREE outdoor movie showing event on CSUN campus June through August. Check out CSUN website for more details <https://w2.csun.edu/as/departments/productions/events> (*The information is not available on the website yet).
- Utilize Social and recreational services and respite hours. Remember to prioritize self-care as a parent. Summer can be busy and demanding, so it is important to make time for relaxation and activities that recharge our batteries.
- Find out what your child loves to do. My daughter loves sensory and water, so I take out the sensory table and create activities for them. I plan on taking her to the water park and bringing out the pool to the backyard.
- Aquatic Centers are great places to cool off in the summer. There are aquatic centers in Santa Clarita, Castaic, and Palmdale, and City pools in the San Fernando Valley.

- Don't be afraid or intimidated to contact your CSC and ask for an IPP for summer rec programs that can be reimbursed through the Regional Center.
- Try a Zooz fitness class to get your child moving and exercising over summer!
- Do anything to keep you and the family cool; the pool, water park areas, use a water hose, go to the beach! It's a great time for ice cream or popsicles!!
- Visit your local library: you can get two for one because it is cool inside, and they have fun activities for all ages!
- My sons had a very positive experience with the Help Group's "Teens on the Go" summer day camp last year <https://www.thehelpgroup.org/program/help-group-camps/>. I was able to cover the costs completely through the self-determination program.
- My niece loves it when I take her to the local library for story time. They also have a lot of other activities they host during the summertime for the kids, so they engage in educational fun. You can also get a discount or free admission to some L.A. museums and attractions with a Los Angeles Public Library card.
- Activities and camps offered through City or County parks and recreation departments must offer reasonable accommodations for people with disabilities. Contact them when you enroll your child to ask for accommodations.
- Many programs may offer early sign up discounts, scholarships or reduced rates for those who qualify.
- Find out where free lunches for children are being offered in your community! Sometimes they are offered at parks, libraries or schools.

LOS MEJORES CONSEJOS DEL VERANO DEL PERSONAL DE FFRC

- Asegúrese de comunicarse con su CSC en la primavera para informarles que su hijo necesitará un asistente que lo acompañe al campamento de verano. Pueden proporcionarle un asistente para que asista al campamento con su hijo (o puede elegir a un amigo de la familia). El asistente pueda facilitar las interacciones sociales durante el campamento.
- ¡Recomiendo el campamento Sunny Days en CSUN! <https://www.csun.edu/usu/program-information>
- Envíe un correo electrónico al supervisor del campamento y presénteles a su hijo y hágale saber que tiene una discapacidad. Si es la primera vez que tu hijo va a un campamento, infórmase también, porque esa información puede resultarle útil.
- Deje a un lado toda la larga lista de preocupaciones mientras su hijo esté en el campamento. Todavía hay mucha gente buena en este mundo, ¡no te preocupes, harán nuevos amigos!
- Consulte las clases de natación de bajo costo en CSUN. El tamaño de la clase es de 5 personas como máximo. Los instructores son maravillosos y muy serviciales.
- Juego de bolos es una agradable actividad en el interior para probar con su hijo, especialmente en un caluroso día de verano.
- Recomiendo comunicarse con los servicios de inclusión de la ciudad de Santa Clarita, quienes pueden ayudar a garantizar que nuestros niños puedan disfrutar de diferentes oportunidades de recreación (inclusionsupport@santa-clarita.gov).
- Considere consultar el programa de Olimpiadas Especiales si está buscando una actividad recreativa divertida y gratuita para su hijo.
- Ve de acampada y desconecta a toda la familia. Los campamentos en parques estatales se pueden buscar y reservar a través de www.reservecalifornia.com.
- Festival de cine de verano de CSUN. Es un evento GRATUITO de proyección de películas al aire libre en el campus de CSUN de junio a agosto. Visite el sitio web de CSUN para obtener más detalles <https://w2.csun.edu/as/departments/productions/events> (*La información aún no está disponible en el sitio web).
- Utilizar servicios sociales y recreativos y horas de relevo. Recuerde priorizar el cuidado personal como padre. El verano puede ser ajetreado y exigente, por eso es importante reservar tiempo para la relajación y actividades que recarguen nuestras pilas.
- Descubra lo que le encanta hacer a su hijo. A mi hija le encantan los sentidos y el agua, así que saco la mesa sensorial y creo actividades para ellos. Planeo llevarla al parque acuático y llevar la piscina al patio trasero.
- Los Centros Acuáticos son fantásticos lugares para refrescarse en verano. Hay centros acuáticos en Santa Clarita, Castaic y Palmdale, y piscinas municipales en el Valle de San Fernando.
- No tenga miedo ni se sienta intimidado de comunicarse con su CSC y solicitar un IPP para programas recreativos de verano que puedan reembolsarse a través del Centro Regional.
- ¡Pruebe una clase de ejercicio de Zooz Fitness para que su hijo se mueva y haga ejercicio durante el verano! <https://www.zoozfitness.com/>
- Haga cualquier cosa para que usted y su familia se mantengan tranquilos; la piscina, áreas de parques acuáticos, usa una manguera de agua, ¡ve a la playa! ¡¡Es un buen momento para helados o paletas!!

- Visita tu biblioteca local: puedes conseguir dos por uno porque hace fresco por dentro y tienen actividades divertidas para todas las edades.
- Mis hijos tuvieron una experiencia muy positiva con el campamento diurno de verano "Teens on the Go" del grupo de ayuda el año pasado <https://www.thehelpgroup.org/program/help-group-camps/>. Pude cubrir los costos completamente a través del programa de autodeterminación.
- A mi sobrina le encanta cuando la llevo a la biblioteca local para leer cuentos. También organizan muchas otras actividades durante el verano para los niños, por lo que se divierten educativamente. También puede obtener un descuento o entrada gratuita a algunos museos y atracciones de Los Ángeles con una tarjeta de la Biblioteca Pública de Los Ángeles.
- Las actividades y campamentos ofrecidos a través de los departamentos de recreación y parques de la ciudad o el condado deben ofrecer adaptaciones razonables para personas con discapacidades. Comuníquese con ellos cuando inscriba a su hijo para solicitar adaptaciones.
- Muchos programas pueden ofrecer descuentos por inscripción anticipada, becas o tarifas reducidas para quienes califiquen.
- ¡Descubra dónde se ofrecen almuerzos gratuitos para niños en su comunidad! A veces se ofrecen en parques, bibliotecas o escuelas.
