Channel Your Inner Superstar at “Karaoke Nights” in the Games Room at the University Student Union

- WHAT: The Pride Center of the University Student Union (USU) calls all singing Matadors to join the fun at “Karaoke Nights” in the Games Room at the University Student Union. Held once a month from February to April, all CSUN students get an amazing opportunity to take the stage and belt out their favorite hits, new or old. Delicious free food and lively singing await you and your friends at “Karaoke Nights”!
- WHO: Stacey Leal, Student Event Assistant, is responsible for putting on this event.
- WHEN: Wednesdays Feb. 14, March 14, and April 4 from 8pm to 10pm.
- WHERE: Games Room, University Student Union (located downstairs across from the Student Recreation Center main entrance)
- WHY: This energetic event provides students the chance to enjoy free food and great entertainment with their fellow Matadors.
- BACKGROUND: Pride Center’s “Karaoke Nights” invites Matadors to sing their heart out at this fun-packed event. Free food and interpreter services will be provided as well. For more information about “Karaoke Nights”, the Pride Center, University Student Union and the Games room, please visit on csun.edu/usu.
