

The MatadorReady Reader

FELLOW MATADORS!

Be a Building Marshal!

Become a Building Marshal at CSUN and play a vital role in making our campus MatadorReady! By joining, you'll learn essential emergency preparedness skills to assist your colleagues, students, and guests in safely evacuating during a disaster. Reserve your spot today by contacting me at nelson.cox@csun.edu to schedule training for your department or building, and find out about upcoming virtual or in-person sessions.

Emergency Manager

NELSON COX, YOUR CSUN EMERGENCY MGR.

CSUN Department of Police Services
Email: nelson.cox@csun.edu
ext. 5937

ZOMBIE APOCALYPSE

The CSUN Office of Emergency Management wants to team up with various departments and campus organizations in continuing the ZOMBIE APOCALYPSE this 2024 Fall

Semester. A fun and exciting scavenger hunt focused on disaster and emergency preparedness. Contact me to join the event as partner. nelson.cox@csun.edu or x.5937

Business Continuity

We are restarting the Continuity cycle and now is the time to begin assessing your department or operational function for hazards and understand your vulnerabilities to business impacts.

Virtual Training

LEARN HOW TO DO IT YOURSELF

Did you know that VEOCI, the platform you maintain and update your continuity plans on has free virtual training available? Follow the link: <https://veoci.com/bootcamps/veoci-fundamentals-training/>

VEOCI TRAINING

VEOCI TRAINING