

The ARF 2020 Field Trip to the Los Angeles Central Library was cancelled because the Library and all its branches are closed due to the Coronavirus pandemic. This visit will be rescheduled for April 2021.

The Los Angeles Central Library is both a leading public research library and a major architectural landmark. The original Central Library building was built in the 1920's. An addition was added in 1993.

